

TechMart Electronics - Refund Policy

Fictional company knowledge base for the Multi-Agent AI Customer Support Assistant capstone.

General window

Eligible unopened physical products may be requested for return within 14 calendar days of delivery.

Defective items

Verified defective products reported within 30 calendar days of delivery may qualify for replacement or refund after support review.

Digital plans

Monthly software subscriptions are refundable only when a duplicate charge or verified service failure is confirmed by billing support. Partial-month refunds are not automatic.

Processing time

Approved refunds are initiated within 3 business days. Banks or card providers may take an additional 5 to 10 business days to post the credit.

Non-refundable cases

Damage caused by misuse, missing serial numbers, and final-sale accessories are not eligible unless required by applicable law.
